

POWER PLANT GALLERY

The Power Plant Gallery is located inside the American Tobacco Campus in the Power Plant Building. There are 3 accessible routes to the Power Plant Gallery explained in this document. We recommend, after dropping off any passengers in need of an accessible entrance, that you park in either the North or South parking decks at the American Tobacco Campus.

Additional parking information at ATC can be found on their website:

The Power Plant gallery strives to make our physical space and programming accessible to all and to provide accommodations when possible. If you have questions, need directions to our gallery, or would like to request an accommodation, please reach out to the director at powerplantgallery@duke.edu or 919-660-3622.

We will return your email or phone call as soon as we can.

The Power Plant Gallery is a project of the MFA in Experimental and Documentary Arts in collaboration with the Archive of Documentary Arts at the Rubenstein Rare Book and Manuscript Library and the Center for Documentary Studies.

Route 1.

STEP 1.

Drop off at 334 Blackwell Street. Look for the Reed Strickland Building sign. This drop-off point might be inaccessible if there is a Durham Bulls baseball game on.

STEP 2.

Enter the lobby and turn right towards the elevator. Press Level 1 to head down to the Security Desk Level.

STEP 3.

Now you are in the lobby next to the American Tobacco Security Desk. On the far side of the lobby you will see glass doors that lead to the interior courtyard of American Tobacco Campus. Proceed through the door and turn right.

STEP 4.

Proceed up the ramp. The Power Plant Gallery is to the left.

STEP 5.

Enter the Power Plant building through double doors closest to the Power Plant sign. Proceed around the corner and you will see the Power Plant Gallery.

Route 2.

STEP 1.

Drop off in front of the Cage and take the steep hill down towards the American Tobacco Campus.

STEP 2.

When arriving at the two-way, proceed with the right pathway which leads you to the Power Plant building on your right.

STEP 3.

To get to the Power Plant Gallery Entrance, turn right around the building and take the second door with the Power Plant Gallery sign.

STEP 4.

Enter the Power Plant building through double doors. Proceed around the corner and you will see the Power Plant Gallery.

Route 3.

STEP 1.

Drop off in the South Parking and head up to the elevator located in the northeast of the parking.

STEP 2.

Take the elevator to the Level C. Now you are inside the American Tobacco Campus.

STEP 3.

Turn right and head straight along the long passway with restaurants on your left and the canal on your right.

STEP 4.

After passing by the Lucky Strike Tower, use the bridge to cross the canal. The Power Plant Gallery entrance is on your left.
